

Family Housing Support Program

United Indians of All Tribes is committed to supporting youth and families at imminent risk of eviction, through funding granted by King County and the City of Seattle. Families that are currently at risk of eviction may be eligible for case management and/or emergency assistance. Assistance may include eviction prevention, limited utility assistance, and move in assistance.

To schedule an appointment or for more information, please call:

Families living in Seattle:

Toy Rodriguez

206-775-6869
trodriguez@unitedindians.org

Families living in outer King County:

Deyo Esquivel

206-707-1562
desquivel@unitedindians.org

United Indians of All Tribes
5011 Bernie Whitebear Way
Seattle, WA 98199
Fax: 206-282-3640

Seattle

Toy Rodriguez
206-775-6869
trodriguez@unitedindians.org

Toy Rodriguez
206-775-6869
trodriguez@unitedindians.org

Toy Rodriguez
206-775-6869
trodriguez@unitedindians.org

King County

Deyo Esquivel
206-707-1562
desquivel@unitedindians.org

Deyo Esquivel
206-707-1562
desquivel@unitedindians.org

Deyo Esquivel
206-707-1562
desquivel@unitedindians.org